

ARIZONA NANOTECHNOLOGY CLUSTER
PRESENTS THE 2009 CEO SOLAR FORUM:

SOLAR IN ARIZONA

THE ROLE OF
SMALL HIGH-TECHNOLOGY BUSINESSES IN GROWING THE ARIZONA SOLAR INDUSTRY

THURSDAY, MAY 14, 2009

11:00 AM-4:00 PM

MARRIOTT BUTTES HOPI ROOM

2000 W. WESTCOURT WAY, TEMPE, AZ 85282

The CEO Solar Forum is a joining of Arizona leaders to discuss the importance of solar to Arizona and how our efforts to promote the emerging nanotechnology solar industry will form a new high technology base for Arizona.

The Arizona Nanotechnology Cluster is an Arizona 501c3 not-for-profit educational organization established to share and promote technological advances in the fast-growing field of Nanotechnology. We are committed to promoting the education of nanoscience to the general public.

This is an invitation-only event for Arizona decision makers. RSVP is required as space is limited and the cost of this event is funded through our sponsors.

RSVP to Karolina Grabiec at Karolina.grabiec@international.gc.ca
